Donor Privacy: We respect the privacy of our donors. We retain donor information in a secure database where it is used to verify transactions, print receipts, thank supporters for their contributions, keep supporters informed, and solicit future donations. We do not keep credit card information in this database. We provide information to our board members and staff on a confidential, need-to-know basis. We do not share or trade our donors' names or personal information with others, and we do not sell that information. We release donor information to other agencies if they are receiving funds specifically designated by the donor, unless the donor has directed us otherwise. We recognize our leadership level donors in our leadership registry annually, unless they request otherwise. We do not send mailings to our donors on behalf of others.
