STEPS FOR A SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN

Thank you so much for taking on the role as an Employee Campaign Coordinator (ECC)! Not only are you providing a tremendous service to your company or organization, your efforts make a difference by improving lives and building stronger communities throughout Oklahoma.

We created this guide to help you achieve a successful campaign, whether that be 100% in-person, 100% virtual or a hybrid of the two. The State Charitable campaign team is also available to help you access tools and discuss the ideas in this guide. Contact us at scc@unitedwayokc.org for additional information.

STEP 1 Connect with Us

We want to better understand your goals and how you would like to approach your campaign. We also want to tell you more about our strategy to support our community through employee campaigns like yours!

- Contact your State Charitable representative to get started. If you don't know who your contact is, reach out to us at scc@unitedwayokc.org.

STEP 2 Make a Plan

The keys to campaign success are preparation and teamwork.

- Determine which dates work best for your campaign.
- Assemble a team to help distribute campaign messaging across departments. A good ratio is one team member per every 25 employees.
- Organize the donor experience that works best for your team, whether it is paper pledging, virtual or both.
- Set fundraising and participation goals.
- Get creative with messaging, incentives and special events to make your campaign fun and engaging.

STEP 3 Inspire Co-Workers

Tell people how their dollars are making a difference.

- Plan a rally to share about the programs your fundraising will support. Include an SCC-approved charity speaker to get more in-depth on a topic your organization is passionate about.
- Promote a culture of giving back. A successful campaign requires frequent communications and reminders.
- Share your own story about why you support the State Charitable Campaign.

STEP 4 Make the Ask

The number one reason people don't give is that they were never asked.

- Kick off your campaign with a fun event featuring an energetic and inspiring ask to give! We can help you do that virtually or in-person.
- Create fun activities to drum up support and provide incentives for your colleagues to participate. Get competitive while giving back!
- Have your agency director write a letter or make a speech. Agency director commitment and leadership helps drive participation.
- Utilize the campaign team members to keep the campaign top of mind on team conference calls or personal ask emails.

STEP 5 Wrap Up & Thank

Thank the generous donors and celebrate your results!

- Finalize campaign results. Submit payroll deduction information to your HR or payroll processing department and work with your SCC coordinator to ensure they receive totals and donor detail.
- Share the impact! Publicize the campaign results in your company newsletter, intranet, social media channel or a message from the agency director.
- Send individualized thank-you notes to each donor.

MAKE IT SOCIAL

S SHORT AND SWEET

Campaigns are best when kept to two weeks or less. The longer the time, the less momentum.

O OVERALL GOALS

Clearly state your goals – dollars raised, number of participants, average donation.

C COMMUNICATE

A picture is worth a thousand words! Use photos or videos when possible in your communication and storytelling. This helps connect people to the mission.

I IMPACT

Provide impact statements – what does my donation do at various levels?

A ACCELERATE SUCCESS WITH GAMES

Daily prizes, trivia, raffles, etc. are a great way to keep people connected. Consider having prizes for those teams who reach their goals.

L LIVE UPDATES ON GOAL PROGRESSION

Celebrate your wins! Keep momentum going by celebrating wins and keeping the progress of the campaign at the top of all communications.

BEST PRACTICES

KICKOFF

Invite employees to a virtual or in-person kickoff, or record a video from your agency director to distribute electronically to all employees. SCC coordinators and approved SCC Charities speakers are also available to join virtual or in-person kickoffs to share the impact of gifts made to the State Charitable Campaign.

UTILIZE AVAILABLE RESOURCES

This guide is available online in our Campaign Toolkit, along with other helpful SCC-related PDFs and links.

Your SCC coordinator can guide you through all steps of running a virtual or in-person campaign as well as help you set goals, train your team and more. Find out who your contact is by emailing scc@unitedwayokc.org.

COMMUNICATIONS

Coordinate outgoing communications to avoid overwhelming employees. Be sure to promote any incentives to increase contributions.

Have your Campaign Committee make individual asks of their team. If possible, this is always done best face-to face or video-to-video. Consider phone calls instead of emails to facilitate interpersonal communication.

INCENTIVES

Popular incentives include prizes, rewards or raffles for unique experiences, or food-based incentives such as an afternoon ice cream social, pizza party or special team meal.

Consider using their completed pledge forms as entrance into the raffle, rather than an additional cost for a ticket.

EVENTS

Consider having in-person events once the campaign has launched to promote donation options and have a little fun.

Host a virtual or in-person kickoff for employees to hear from your agency and campaign leadership, have a silent auction with prizes like gift cards or host a virtual bingo game.

For more event ideas, check out pages 15-16.

KICKOFF PLANNING SCHEDULE

FIRST

Confirm Agency Director Attendance

Before picking an event date, work with your agency director's team to book their time and ensure they are available to host the kickoff event(s). Great leadership inspires others!

3-5 WEEKS
BEFORE

Prepare Event Invitation and Attendee List

Draft up your invitation. If you need approval from others, consider starting a week earlier. Include a calendar invite that will remind everyone the day of.

Pull and sort your invitation list. Work with your HR department to ensure you have captured all staff. Divide up the list (e.g., by department) if you are hosting multiple events.

Request Agency Speaker(s)

Work with SCC coordinator to request an SCC-approved charity speaker as a direct example of how your fundraising will impact the community.

Prep How You Will Give

If you haven't started already, take steps to decide the best way for your organization to donate, whether that be paper or virtual pledging.

2 WEEKS

Send Invitation

Include information such as an agenda, presentation or list of speakers. Don't forget to provide in-person and virtual information if necessary.

Collect RSVPs

Track RSVPs to have an idea of how colleagues are responding to your invitation.

1 WEEK

Send a Reminder

Consider sending a reminder invitation email that includes the calendar invite if many colleagues haven't responded to your initial invitation.

Confirm Key Speakers

Ensure that anyone speaking from your organization (e.g., agency director, department head, yourself) feels prepared. Work with SCC coordinator to confirm they and/or the SCC-approved charity speaker feel prepared as well.

3 DAYS

All Systems Go

Complete an 'all systems go' run-through to test your conferencing system and presentation documents. This will put your mind at ease and may help you to identify issues that you can rectify before event day.

Last Minute Test

Test your conference system and any other technology. If needed, print out necessary documents (agenda, events calendar, etc.) and set up your space.

Share Incentives at Events and via Email

We hope your event is attended by many and goes off without a hitch! Thanks to you, your organization is inspired to support their community and participate in this year's campaign.

Send Donation Link Immediately Following

Now that you've inspired everyone, give them the means to support their community by sending out the donation link. If you've hosted multiple events, send the link out after the last kick-off event has concluded.

Continue Communication

To keep inspiration going strong after your event, use provided sample emails to remind your team of events, incentives, and the resources their donations are going to.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: HOW LONG SHOULD OUR WORKPLACE CAMPAIGN RUN?

A: The average campaign runs for one or two weeks. Longer campaigns often take up additional time and resources for both the campaign coordinator and employees. One to two weeks is sufficient to kick off your campaign, get the message out effectively, and make your ask without overburdening staff.

Q: ARE DONATIONS TO THE STATE CHARITABLE CAMPAIGN TAX DEDUCTIBLE?

A: Yes. For additional information, please visit oklahoma.gov/omes/services/employee-benefits/state-employee-charitable-campaign.

Q: WHEN SHOULD OUR GIVING CAMPAIGN RUN?

A: Most campaigns take place sometime between September and November, but they can happen at a time best suited for your organization.

Q: WHEN DOES PAYROLL DEDUCTION START?

A: Payroll deduction usually runs from January 1 – December 31. As a reminder, these are pledges only, and employees are not liable to pay them if they leave their job for any reason.

Q: IF EMPLOYEES WORK REMOTELY, CAN WE STILL RUN A CAMPAIGN?

A: Absolutely! Since 2020, agencies have pivoted how they run their SCC campaigns. This Campaign Playbook is filled with what we've learned along the way to equip any state agency to run a successful campaign no matter what the work environment is.

Q: IF I NEED SOCIAL SERVICES ASSISTANCE, WHERE CAN I GET HELP?

A: Simply dial 2-1-1 and a trained professional will gladly refer you to resources in your area.

THANK YOU!

IN-PERSON EVENT IDEAS

BABY PICTURE CONTEST

Employees provide a baby photo of themselves, and staff guesses who is who. Those who want to guess must pay per guess.

BAKE SALE/BAKE CONTEST

Encourage employees to bake for a bake sale. All proceeds from items sold benefit your campaign. Have a "Top Chef" competition between floors or departments, or have a contest to see who makes the best dessert.

BALLOON POP

Employees donate prizes for this event – a variation of a traditional raffle. Before filling a balloon with air, put a note inside with the name of the prize. Employees pay $1 to buy a balloon and pop it to find out what prize they've won. Include a charity fact in each balloon.

BASKET RAFFLE

Ask each department to sponsor, create and fill a theme basket (spa, chocolate, lottery, gourmet cooking, home improvement, entertainment, sports, night on the town, dog/cat oriented, kids/game oriented, etc.). Sell raffle tickets for $1 each or 6 for $5. Employees can select which basket or baskets they'd like to win.

CHILI COOK-OFF CONTEST

Ask employees to cook a favorite chili recipe and enter it into a cook-off contest. Invite employees to pay $10 for lunch (a sample of each chili dish). Each participant casts one vote for their favorite and the chili with the most votes wins a prize.

AGENCY CARNIVAL

Invite employees to an old-fashioned carnival, complete with a bake sale, bubble blowing and 50 cent hot dogs. Have a hula hoop contest and hoop-shoot. Charge participants a fee to enter contests. Have a dunk tank with your favorite executives. Have a pie-throwing booth.

AGENCY OLYMPICS/MINUTE TO WIN IT

Teams participate in Olympic or Minute to Win-It type events, such as wastebasket paper ball free throws, breakroom obstacle courses, paper airplane contests, or make the longest paper clip chain in one minute. Teams pay to participate and the company buys prizes or lunch for the winning team.

EMPLOYEE COOKBOOK

Collect recipes from employees, and compile them into sections and into a cookbook. Sell the cookbook for a reasonable fee. Consider having an employee's child provide the cover artwork. Books can be printed and bound by a local business. This would also be a great way to highlight the "Top Chefs" at your organization.

MINIATURE GOLF

Create a mini-golf course that takes players through your building – even up and down in elevators! The lowest score will take home a prize. Interested employees return an entry form, pay a fee and bring a putter the day of the event.

SILENT AUCTION

Ask vendors and employees to donate items, or solicit gift cards from local restaurants. Put the items on display online or in a prominent location. At a designated time, close the bidding. Then let employees know of the highest bid and continue the auction with one hour left to outbid it to win it.

TAILGATE PARTY

Create a sports theme for your campaign since the State Charitable Campaign coincides with football season. Sell football fare from a truck in the parking lot "tailgate" style. Offer hot dogs, popcorn, peanuts, soft drinks and other goodies. Organize a tag football game, with participants donating an entry fee and observers wagering on the outcome.

VIRTUAL EVENT IDEAS

STAFF SUPERLATIVES - AN ONLINE VOTING CONTEST

Host a virtual contest where every dollar donated is a "vote" to select a winner. It's great if you can tie to your theme/campaign. For instance, the cutest kitten or best nature photography. Or feature your employees, staff, and supporters with ideas like best dressed, best joke, funniest dance move or best piece of art.

A VIRTUAL CHARITY RUN / SUBSTITUTE ANOTHER ACTIVITY (YOGA, CRAFTS, MEDITATION, JUMP ROPE, OR CYCLING)

Can't run in groups outside? No problem! The idea here is for supporters to pledge to run or walk any number of miles or a number of consecutive days, whether by themselves outdoors, with their family or their dog or on a treadmill at home.

ONLINE LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Cook like a chef, flower decorating, and learn a new skill (led by celebrity contacts, professional volunteers or colleagues and a list of supplies for participants to buy can be sent or purchased in advance).

ONLINE POP-UP SHOP

Shop could sell custom shirts, jackets, sweatshirts, and masks with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the SCC.

BINGO IN DAILY COMMUNICATIONS

Sell online bingo cards, clue in daily communications.

VIRTUAL DRIP BALLOON POP

Employees donate prizes for this event – a variation of a traditional raffle. Before filling a balloon with helium, put a note inside with the name of the prize. Employees pay $1-$5 to buy a balloon and pop it to find out what they've won.

VIRTUAL LEADERSHIP GIVING OLYMPICS

Employees form teams and are charged an entry fee to participate. Teams compete in different events: office chair relays, company trivia, archery (with rubber bands), finger skating (typing), coffee cup relay, etc., spaced over several days or all at once. The winning team takes home the gold medal and office bragging rights.

VIRTUAL JEOPARDY, TRIVIA, BINGO SOCIAL MEDIA OR "NEXT UP" TYPE CAMPAIGNS

Employees can get all dressed up at home (versus casual days at the office) and post pictures of themselves to create awareness about the campaign, do something good challenge where someone tags their next colleague to do something.

VIRTUAL COOKING CLASS

Cooking class with a 'celebrity chef'. Companies can provide an ingredient list ahead of time so items can be purchased. Partner with local farmers and curate special ingredient boxes that can be distributed beforehand.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

NO MATTER HOW YOU DECIDE TO RUN A CAMPAIGN, WE HAVE THE MATERIALS FOR YOU!

- Use the following resources as a guide to build your campaign.
- You can mix and match to customize your campaign to your employees' needs or print/copy them all to show the scope of opportunities!

SCC CHARITY CLIENT STORIES

HEALING THROUGH ART

A military veteran, Jen, never imagined that she would spend her days dealing with PTSD, while also serving as the sole caretaker for her elderly parent. But that is where she found herself after years in the U.S. Army and when her parents fell ill. Like many veterans, Jen needed an outlet. She enrolled in pottery classes at an SCC charity that gives veterans an opportunity to discover new ways to connect with each other and their community, among many of its programs.

Jen found joy in working with her hands and discovering a talent that she did not know she had. ,” Jen says. The program has helped her escape past trauma and cope with her PTSD by connecting with fellow veterans and herself through art.

“You don’t know what’s in your own heart or in your mind until you use your hands to try to create something.”

“Our life is not what we planned, but we’re enjoying it, and we couldn’t do it without them. A lot of dads run. They run from [a special needs diagnosis]. To me, it is the biggest blessing. There is no way that I’d want any other kids than the ones I have.”

A LIFE-CHANGING PLACE FOR FAMILIES

Coby and Shelly are parents to Kinley, 19, and Kamden, 18. Kinley was born with a rare genetic disorder which affects the heart, facial features and skin.

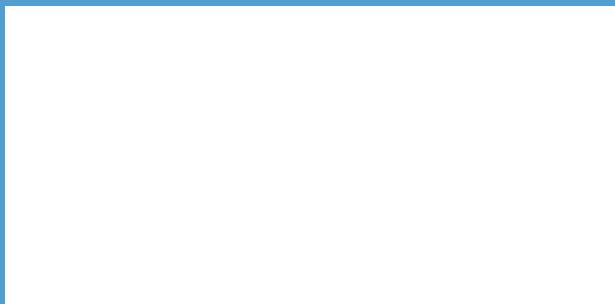

Kinley spent the first year of her life undergoing surgeries to repair the hole in her heart and working to reach goals in therapy.

Kamden has a specific gene mutation that can lead to intellectual disability, language delay and Autism.

With two young children with special needs, Coby and Shelly knew they needed help. They were referred to an SCC charity, where their children have been for 15 years.

Coby and Shelly were not looking for a “fix” for their children, rather they wanted to meet them where they were. They have also found a community in other families who have children with special needs – a group they call their “forever friends.”

OUR GOAL

THANK YOU!
