Life is a gift, not to possess, but to share.

-Henri Nouwen

We proudly feature our United Way champions in this book, our loyal donors who give generously and Stand United to help our community's most vulnerable citizens.

As members of United Way's Leadership Giving Societies, you are impacting the lives of more than 800,000 central Oklahomans. Thank you for opening your heart, giving generously and championing our mission to help those in need.
The individuals listed here are donors contributing to United Way of Central Oklahoma, United Way of Canadian County and United Way of Logan County in the summer and fall of 2021. Much of the data is based on information submitted by companies and organizations between June 1, 2021, and April 1, 2022.

In addition to the individuals, families and companies listed in this book, we recognize the generosity of those members who wish to remain anonymous.

Every effort has been made to accurately include all Leadership Giving members. We apologize for any errors or omissions. For corrections, questions or additional information on leadership programs, please contact the Vice President of Resource Development at 405-236-8441 or leadership@unitedwayokc.org.
“In looking back on my life, I feel blessed to know the difference my family has made,” said Jeaneen Eddie Naifeh, a philanthropic trailblazer whose family has been a community pillar in Oklahoma City for nearly a century.

The Eddie and Naifeh families could patent a Generational Giving Map. Central Oklahoma is better supported because of their hearts, and many Oklahomans recognize this. In fact, the Oklahoma History Center has maintained biographies, photographs and more of the Eddie and Naifeh generations, especially on the man who raised Jeaneen after her father, Kamil, passed away. Jeaneen credits her uncle B.D. Eddie, fondly referred to as Babe due to his love of baseball, with being the first to model the essence of giving to the family.

“There was something special about Babe,” Jeaneen said.

The improvements made in Oklahoma City throughout the 1940s and ’50s were in large part because of B.D. Name a board or charitable organization and he was on it, including United Way of Central Oklahoma where he served as campaign chairman in 1943 and board chairman in 1952.

A monumental moment United Way of Central Oklahoma will never forget is receiving its first building from B.D. in July 1965. The cornerstone remains in United Way’s current lobby, honoring B.D. and his wife, Pauline.

Jeaneen first met her husband, Robert “Bob” Naifeh, a U.S. Army Veteran, at a party. Seeing a beer in his hand, Jeaneen said she wanted nothing to do with him. But Bob, like any good man, was persistent and continued to call – and the rest was history. The Naifehs would later own Central Liquor in the late ’50s, one of the first to open in Oklahoma. Central Liquor has since merged with Republic National Distributing Co., following suit as loyal supporter of United Way.

Bob and Jeaneen were married for more than 60 years, raising four children with the same work ethic, service capabilities and philanthropic hearts as the generation that preceded them.

Jeaneen and daughter Jenee continued the family’s legacy with their own United Way involvement as Tocqueville Society donors and Women’s Leadership Society members. Jenee is also a current member of United Way’s Board of Directors and serves on the Finance Committee.

“United Way is so widespread,” Jeaneen said. “In giving to United Way, the impact of your donation..."
goes further. It touches so many people in need. If everybody could just give what they can afford – and it doesn’t have to be much – think of the impact we would make.”

In addition to United Way, the Naifeh family’s giving reach extends to Oklahoma’s hospitals, Habitat for Humanity, YWCA, Jim Thorpe Sports Hall of Fame and more. Bob and Jeaneen supported events throughout Oklahoma City that benefitted numerous area nonprofits, and they chaired many committees, including Allied Arts and Girl Scouts, among others. Following in her parents’ footsteps, Jenee has also volunteered her time on the boards of St. Anthony Hospital and Oklahoma City University, where her father was inducted into the OCU Commerce and Industry Hall of Honor in 2009. Students continue to succeed because of the Naifehs’ gifts in scholarships at OCU.

Another organization near to Jeaneen’s heart is the Oklahoma City Museum of Art, where she spearheaded the first-ever wine tasting for the museum that brought many local restaurants together at Central Liquor. Jenee stressed the importance of events to encourage young people to gain volunteer experiences and instill philanthropic values for generations to come.

“I’ve loved every minute of it,” Jeaneen said, reflecting on her family’s community involvement. “It has made me softer through the years thinking about the past and what my folks were able to give to me and my heart – and what I was able to do for the city, my friends and Oklahoma in return.”
Stability, reliability and service. You’ll find these three words used to describe F&M Bank, an Oklahoma-based, family-owned bank that goes back three generations. These core tenets are rooted in the organization’s foundation and the values of its founder, John V. Anderson. These same principles have led Mr. Anderson to give back to his community in meaningful ways, including his loyal support of United Way that dates back some 70 years.

In 1946, Mr. Anderson had recently returned home to Oklahoma from serving in the U.S. Navy when he began working for Liberty Bank. Little did he know this new job would change the trajectory of his life, both professionally and personally. While working his way through the ranks at Liberty Bank, Mr. Anderson was also learning the importance of civic involvement firsthand.

“Early in my career, the Liberty bankers asked me to get involved with the United Way campaign,” Anderson said. “Having lived through the Great Depression, they strongly believed in serving others and they encouraged every officer to contribute.”

After working with Liberty for 26 years and ultimately becoming senior vice president of operations, Mr. Anderson purchased the controlling interest of Farmers & Merchants bank in Crescent in 1972. During his time at Liberty Bank, he also met and married his wife of 72 years, Jo. Together they share four children and 17 grandchildren, many of whom serve in leadership positions at various F&M Bank locations.

“I’ve always told my children that you have to give back to the community in which you live and work,” Anderson said. “It’s important to our family to invest in our local community, whether through the schools, church or charitable activities like those supported by the United Way.”

As loyal contributors and longtime members of the United Way of Central Oklahoma Leadership Giving Association, the Andersons prioritize giving back to their community year after year. This reliability provides ongoing stability for the Partner Agencies that depend on United Way support to provide vital health and human service programs to Oklahomans in need.

With F&M Bank branches located throughout central Oklahoma, Logan and Canadian counties, the Andersons’ philanthropic support is very much focused on giving back to their community. In fact, F&M Bank is one of the largest workplace campaigns in both Logan County and Canadian County – a direct reflection of the core values instilled by their founder.

“To whom much is given, much is required,” Mr. Anderson said. “I believe that being a good community banker means taking care of your community.”

And for 70 years, the central Oklahoma community has benefitted from Mr. Anderson’s stability, reliability and service.
United Way’s Tocqueville Society is formed by our most generous and community-centric philanthropic leaders – those who are committed to investing in the welfare of our community and caring for our most vulnerable citizens. At the forefront of their minds is the need for sustainable and tangible solutions to our community’s most challenging problems.

Tocqueville members generously contribute $10,000 or more annually to United Way, leaving a resounding impact on central Oklahomans in need. Their contributions ensure Partner Agency funding and support for generations to come – and for that, we couldn’t be more thankful.

Alexis de Tocqueville, for whom the society is named, famously documented the American public’s unique willingness to work for the public welfare – a tendency to lend faithful support to neighbors and countrymen, especially in times of need.

“I wanted to get involved with United Way of Central Oklahoma because of its positive impact on the lives of almost every resident in the area. From mental health to food insecurity to playgrounds to disasters, the United Way has a healing presence.

As a donor, I appreciate the accountability United Way requires of its agencies but I love knowing that some child’s needs were met because I was able to partner with United Way.”

“It has been my pleasure to coordinate volunteers for United Way’s Day of Caring over the past 16 years. Watching their engagement grow with our Partner Agencies has been a gift, and to know that they will often return to them without any coordination on my part, is a blessing. A majority of people are just one paycheck away from needing assistance – and that could be me, as well. Whether it’s time, money or heart, everyone has something to give. So give what you can. Get out of your comfort zone, and it could change our community – and the world – for the better.”

ROB FORD
DRAKE FOSTER
“Our United Way giving story began in the early 2000s after being encouraged by our employers to consider giving to United Way. We were also modeled volunteerism and philanthropy by our parents, which is something we believe is important to model to our children, as well. It is our desire to give back to our own community with the practice of giving, not just with dollars but with time. United Way is so dependent on volunteer time.

We know the people who set out for nonprofit work have a heart for it. And it’s a good feeling to know that a United Way donation goes to the right places at the right time. Years ago, we had a family member who passed away in INTEGRIS Hospice House and knew that United Way dollars went to that facility for small things — things to make families feel more comfortable and cared for.

Listening to Partner Agencies share how donations are spread out and used, we’ve heard some pretty powerful stories. Additionally, United Way is a good steward of its money, and the Partner Agencies are held accountable. It’s the ultimate definition of “community” to have an umbrella organization, like United Way, wrap their arms around a community in need. It’s maximum impact. How can we ensure our dollars have the most impact? We do that by giving to United Way.”

When I started working at MidFirst Bank 15 years ago, I was told that United Way was really important to Mr. Records. Being young and not knowing much about United Way at the time, I made it a priority to start giving and gradually got more involved as I witnessed its good work. I even started serving on the board of an agency.

I have seen firsthand how these agencies run on a very tight budget and yet have such a lasting impact on the people they serve. Many of the employees work long hours for very modest earnings, but always have a smile on their face. They truly love serving others and changing lives.

A few agencies that have been special to our family are A Chance to Change, Calm Waters and Family Builders. United Way also did an amazing job of handling the Moore Tornado in May 2013 by ensuring the donated funds were utilized in the right way.

With so many choices for charitable donations, one should never hesitate to know it is going to the right place when United Way is involved."

Company Giving

In addition to the generous individuals who lead with philanthropic hearts for our community, hundreds of companies have made significant contributions to the United Way of Central Oklahoma. With contributions ranging from $5,000 to more than $1 million, we are abundantly grateful for the support of the following organizations.

$1 MILLION AND ABOVE

Women’s Leadership Society

United Way of Central Oklahoma’s Women’s Leadership Society unites women – their time, talents and resources – into a powerful network of individuals devoted to enhancing and strengthening the community through intergenerational opportunities. These community-minded women give $2,500 or more annually and leverage the collective power of women supporting United Way.

The Women’s Leadership Society provides a number of educational opportunities to hear from renowned speakers, researchers and community leaders on current trends relevant to central Oklahoma, as well as events to better the community through the collaboration of networking and philanthropy.

A dedicated group of female philanthropists, Women’s Leadership Society’s focus is developing new leadership for the community through encouragement of intergenerational interaction and mentoring, educational opportunities and a shared vision of community engagement.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON

The Women’s Leadership Society’s ninth annual recruitment luncheon featured a compelling panel discussion about MAPS 4 as it relates to health and human services in Oklahoma City.

Thank you to our panelists, Mayor David Holt and Teresa Rose, MAPS 4 Citizens Advisory Board Chair, for your time and for the tremendous work you do for our community!

HOLLY JOLLY GATHERING

In addition to enjoying an afternoon of festive fellowship at the Holly Jolly Gathering, more than 120 planners were collected for United Way Partner Agency, ReMerge. Planners are important tools for ReMerge mothers as they begin the new journey of recovery, helping to build time management skills and establish routines.
Emerging Leaders

Rising into the ranks of the next generation of leadership donors are the generous young professionals who make up the Emerging Leaders affinity group. Along with annual contributions of $500 or more, Emerging Leaders serve their community through invested involvement and enthusiastic leadership.

Thanks to BKD CPAs & Advisors, a special incentive was offered to Emerging Leaders who joined or renewed their membership in 2021. Each member received a t-shirt custom designed by Curbside Apparel, a program of the Homeless Alliance and 2019 WayFinder Innovation Grant recipient.

United Way of Central Oklahoma’s Board of Directors has voted to establish an endowment fund to provide an opportunity for donors to continue making an impact through United Way for future generations.

This endowment is invested for long-term growth and ensures future support for United Way’s work in our community. The goal for this fund is to cover operating expenses, allowing every donated dollar to be 100% committed to funded programs and initiatives.

We extend our most sincere thanks to the companies, organizations and individuals who have committed to our endowment, supporting the work of United Way and our Partner Agencies for years to come.

Logan County Leadership Giving Association members are dedicated to supporting the needs of their neighbors and community. With annual contributions of $500 or more, the generosity of these individuals goes to support programs and resources that are making a true difference in Logan County.

“My husband and I have been supporters of United Way for years and wholeheartedly believe in the mission of the organization, as it improves the lives of families in need. We have family members who have received help from United Way, and we are thankful to see the impact our dollars are making in the community.

Our involvement with United Way began by serving as workplace Pacesetter Campaign Chairs. We have maintained this role and enjoy every minute of it.

In Logan County, I have increased the awareness of the many benefits United Way of Logan County provides through our Partner Agencies and enhanced the love and support for UWLC from employees by showing the immeasurable resources gained through our collaborations. A great example is the mental health support and shelter provided to students by working with the Saville Center and Logan Community Services.

Two of my favorite experiences with UWLC are surpassing our 2020 and 2021 campaign goals during a time of financial uncertainty as we faced a national pandemic and being selected as the 2018 Volunteer of the Year.

One of our favorite parts of United Way is serving on the Community Investment Committee. Working with a select group of Partner Agencies and seeing firsthand their needs to help strategize on maximizing funding for their selected projects is invaluable. There is no better feeling than knowing you have assisted in determining the best possible outcome for an agency and to be assured those dollars will be used for their intended purposes.”

United Way of Canadian County

Canadian County Leadership Giving Association members are creating lasting impact by investing in their community. Each year, their generous gifts of $500 or more provide hope and life-changing resources for thousands of Canadian County residents in need.

“United Way of Canadian County is more than just a charitable organization – it takes care of its Partner Agencies, so they can then take care of our neighbors in need. There’s an exceptional level of dignity, compassion and understanding that United Way envelopes.

When I accepted my first banking job, my employer was extremely passionate about United Way, and that is what sparked my donations. I have been blessed with so much, and it is an honor to be able to share a blessing with others.

I am so thankful to also know where my dollar goes with United Way, as I trust them to meet the needs of our community. I have seen firsthand the level of care provided to residents through site visits of United Way’s Partner Agencies. All in all, it’s about taking care of people.”

EmbraceOKC

At the heart of United Way of Central Oklahoma’s mission is research, and we are fortunate to have a dedicated team assessing emerging needs and challenges in our community. These assessments give us an advantage to better understand how we can direct our resources and collaborate to find solutions – and one such solution is EmbraceOKC.

EmbraceOKC is a program seeking to improve the behavioral, emotional and social well-being of Oklahoma City Public School students and their families through school-based mental health services. The initiative includes screening students for early detection and intervention as well as training school staff in mental health first aid, psychological first aid and de-escalation techniques. Together with the OKC Chamber’s Compact, United Way of Central Oklahoma is working to secure resources to support this vital initiative.

As students cope with the impact of COVID-19 in addition to the emotional health challenges already prevalent for many youth, EmbraceOKC is more vital to the Oklahoma City Public School District now than ever before. We are grateful for the support of the following partners and donors who are ensuring these students will have the resources they need for years to come.

EMBRACEOKC DONORS

EMBRACEOKC PARTNERS:
Our campaign theme for this past year was “Life Is a Gift” – four powerful words that make us pause and reflect on why and how we’re here in the world, and what we should do with the life that has been gifted to us. In reflecting on this profound statement, we realize that one of the greatest gifts is having the loyal support of such an incredible community.

Lifted by the loyalty of our generous donors and the dedicated leadership of our Campaign Co-Chairs, David and Aimee Harlow, we are humbled to have raised more than $17.8 million to support our community’s health and human service programs – ensuring the gift of life is shared with thousands of Oklahomans in need.
From donors to board members, there is no shortage of outstanding people who support United Way of Central Oklahoma. Each year, we strive to recognize three individuals who go above and beyond to serve our organization.

We congratulate this year’s Volunteer Award Winners for their exceptional dedication and service to our community.
