As a CWC Case Manager Assistant, under the supervision of the Case Manager, you are part of our Housing staff that assist in the management of NSO's Transitional Living Housing Program (TLP) to young men aged 18-23 who experience homelessness. Acting as the first line of support to the 17 individuals and assisting each resident in achieving personal and financial self-sufficiency by aiding in resolving a range of barriers to self-sufficiency. A fundamental goal of this program is to assist clients in gaining permanent housing and the necessary life skills to remove risk of future occurrences of homelessness in their lives. The CWC Case Manager Assistant ensures an empowering environment providing safety, structure, crisis intervention, advocacy, and problem-solving with residents.

Prior experience working with the homeless or underserved population is a plus! Can you keep accurate records, follow up with clients, track progress, promote goals and make appropriate referrals? Do you have basic knowledge of computer literacy skills, have an attention to detail, patience, and the ability to handle multiple projects and task simultaneously? Can you work up to 20 hours per week on Saturdays and Sundays? Do you have reliable transportation? If so, keep reading how NSO will help you succeed in this role.
